HASSLER (HOSTLER) FAMILY

From Roots of Roane County, TN by Snyder E. Roberts

In making their niche in Roane history, the Hassler families, over a period of time, "cut a wide swath" from Poplar Creek at Oliver Springs, through Hen Valley, Webster Pike, Clinch River to establish themselves on Emery River at Swan Pond. The family name occurs in records with various spellings, but "Hassler" was used in naming the well-known mill at Swan Pond, and the road from Harriman to Swan Pond still carries the name Hassler Mill Road.

In 1800, MICHAEL HASSLER II and Michael III bought (Anderson Book A, p 33) 200 acres from Charles McClung. This tract was located at the eastern present city limits of Oliver Springs on Poplar Creek and on the Roane-Anderson counties line. At this location, they were neighbors to Revolutionary War soldiers: WILLIAM and THOMAS BUTLER, ANCIL MANLEY, WILLIAM GRIFFITH, NATHAN SULLINS, THOMAS JONES, DOUGLAS OLIVER, WILLIAM REPETO, and possibly others. The Hasslers obtained adjoining land and mill sites. Anderson County Court Minutes from 1802 show that the Hasslers had a mill on Main Poplar Creek. This meant that the Hasslers had to be highly skilled millwrights and millers in order to build and operate successfully a mill at that location because of the large volume of water and extensive flooding. No doubt, the Hasslers were assisted in their mill building by JOHN SCARBROUGH, the master mill builder.

TO INDIAN CREEK

In 1810, the Hasslers started their trek into Roane by purchasing (Roane E, p 410) 230 acres from Charles McClung. This tract included a mill site on a branch emptying into Indian Creek. This mill on the old Oliver Springs-Harriman Highway operated until in the 1920's. In disposing of the Anderson County tract, Michael Hassler III executed an unusual deed to WILLIAM WRIGHT. The deed (Anderson K, p 174) has Michael III's name signed in German (below the signature, the Clerk signed in English "Michael Hossler".)

TO HEN VALLEY, SWAN POND

The Hasslers acquired considerable acreage in Hen Valley on the western outskirts of present Oliver Springs near their mill. These tracts were later acquired by the BORUM and LILES families. Michael III sold (L, p 299) 25 acres on Crass' Mill Creek between Scandlyn and Orchard View to JACOB CRASS which adjoined the Crass mill dam. There are some indications that the Hasslers were related by marriage to the Crasses. Michael III and his sons, Michael IV and Simeon, bought and sold land and mill sites in the Webster Pike area (segment of old Oliver Springs-Harriman highway).

By 1820, Michael III owned 600 acres on Emery River at Swan Pond. It was here that he erected the large mill that bore his name. In 1871, Simeon Hassler was living at Swan Pond and paying taxes on 905 acres and his mill. In 1880, he owned 465 acres bounded by GREEN, KNOBLOUGH, BYRD, and ELLIS.

THE HASSLER (HOSTLER) FAMILY

The key to understanding the Hassler family lines is to know there were four generations of "Michael" Hasslers. Michael Hassler I came from "Hasli Val" in the Germanic-speaking region of Switzerland to PA where he landed September 28, 1749. He had sons: Michael II, Joseph, Christian, George and Abraham. Of these, George and Abraham were later in Anderson County, but it was Michael II who settled on the Roane-Anderson line in 1801.

MICHAEL II, REVOLUTIONARY WAR

Michael Hassler II was born November 5, 1754 in PA, and died September 4, 1826 in Roane County. He served in the Rev. War for the period 1777-1781. He married (12/1777) in York County, PA, CHRISTIANA GIELSMAN (1758-1847). Christiana applied for a widow's pension in 1841. The pension application included the names and birthdates of their eleven children, all of whom were born in York County, PA.

MICHAEL III (see below), GEORGE (1780), CHATERINA (1781), EVA (1783), MARGARET (1785), ADAM (1787) married Sophia. He fought in the War of 1812, and his family is shown in the Roane 1850 census. In the 1870 Roane census, Adam, 83 is retired, Sophia 70 keeping house. DANIEL (1791) married (1811 in Roane) NANCY NOEL. He also fought in the War of 1812. ELIZABETH (1793) married (1821 in Roane) WILLIAM BOWMAN. CHRISTINA (1795), JOHN (1797) married (1825) ELIZABETH DOW, ABRAHAM (1797) married NANCY____. They are shown in the Anderson County 1850 census with five children.

MICHAEL HASSLER III

Michael Hassler III was born in York County, PA, October 29, 1778, and died in Roane, TN in 1853. He married (probably in Anderson Co.) AGNES SCARBROUGH (1788 VA-1863). They are buried in the Swan Pond Methodist Church Cemetery. Michael III and his father, the Rev. War soldier, seemed to be closely associated as they moved from place to place in Roane County. It was Michael III who signed his name in German to the deed in Anderson County which indicates that strong ethnic customs and the German language had been handed down through the generations. Michael III and Agnes were outstanding citizens in the Swan Pond community, and their children intermarried with prominent Emery River families. Census records, Michael III's will dated 1853, and other court records give a rather complete story of him and his family. Michael III and Agnes had 12 children as follows:

Mary "Polly" (1806) m (1821) THEODORICK GREEN (1800) who was a brother to AUSTIN L. GREEN. In the 1850 census, Mary and Theodorick had the following children: James J., Jonathan, John, J.L., Almeda, Theodorick B, Letha A, Amanda, Avery, Milly.

Jane (1829) married SAMUEL K. RICHARDSON

Emily married (11830) JACOB FUNK

Dacey married (1831) ESAU FUNK

William married (1832) LOUISA NICHOLS

Nancy married (1833) THOMAS DUGGER

Mahala married (1834) WILEY RICHMOND

Simeon was born in 1820 and died in 1891. He married ALICE CRUMBLISS (1821-) from a prominent Roane family. He was a Justice of the Peace, a well-to-do farmer and miller and he probably served in the Civil War. It was Simeon who sold the four Hen Valley tracts at Oliver Springs to REV. THOMAS LILES in 1783. Children: Roena Hassler m George G. Byrd, Eliphlet F. Hassler m Harriet Orpha Warner, Armedia Hassler m James R. Crow, Mary E. Hassler m Frances K. Suddath, James Michael Hassler, Simeon Hassler, Jr., Susan Hassler, Henry Hassler, Delia Hassler, Alma E. Hassler.

Michael Hassler IV (1825 -) married (1855) CHESTINA KNOBLOUGH (1835 Germany). Michael IV was a farmer and a miller. In the Roane 1860 census, Michael IV and Chestina had one child, Caroline, 2 years of age, and his mother, Agnes 72 years of age. In 1872, Michael IV was in the state of GA as shown in Roane Deed Book (K, p 444) in which Simeon was settling with his brother Michael IV, for their respective parts to three tracts of land and a mill.

Amanda (1830) married (1851) SAMUEL BORUM (1816). In 1841, Samuel Borum bought 234 acres in Hen Valley from his father-in-law to be, and bought other adjoining tracts. He was a prosperous farmer. During the Civil War, he either served in the Confederate Army, or was a southern sympathizer because after the War, he was sued by former Union officers. Samuel deeded much of his land to his brother and other relatives, and in 1866 went to Rock Island, Cook County, IL. His son, SAMUEL MCHENRY BORUM, later lived near Gadsden, AL. In the Roane 1860 census, Samuel and Amanda had three children: Mary C., Samuel McHenry, Florence. Another girl, Della, was born later.

Lydia married first (1839) MICHAEL LOWER. She married, secondly, PLEASANT BORUM (1814). By 1855, Lydia and Pleasant were living in Scott County, IL.

Carolina (1831-1890) married (1847 in Roane) JEHU PHILLIPS (1824-1899), grandson of CLEMMON PHILLIPS, RWS. Caroline and Jehu Phillips had children as follows: Monroe, Jerome S, Joseph E, Charles G, Reuben T. married JENNIE COOPER, Virgil L., Ellie, Fannie, Alma C. married JAMES WADE.

I was browsing thru some search engines, looking for my own website, and saw yours. Imagine my delight when I discovered you had info on my own branch of the Hasslers. Alex C Hassler (b. 1816) was my 2d great-grandfather and his son Thomas, was my great-grandfather.

My own dad did much work back in the 1930s and I have have hundreds of names of the family in my database. My niece, Kathy Olson, has done exceptional work on this and lives in Plano TX.

Your Sarah (b. 1829) and my Alex were brother and sister, children of Daniel. They lived in Madison Cty MO and I have considerable info about the family there. I visited the site of the old family farm and have a map that shows "Hassler Bluff" on one side of the property. It's just a few miles west of Fredericktown, near Little Vine Church and cemetery. Alex died in CA, but not in Porterville, rather in San Diego. I have his last letter, written in 1904 to his son. Epsey, his wife, is buried in Valley Center, SD Cty, CA.

How did you find Daniel in the 1840 Madison Cty census?? None of us could ever locate Daniel after KY. I think you have broken a barrier for me, in that I can find out more about Daniel's death, where buried, where he farmed and even search the county records for same. I see a trip to St. Louis coming!!

I use Family Tree Maker and can send some printed material if you like. I guess we are 4th cousins. Best regards, Don Hassler, Tempe AZ, 480-784-4966

Jennifer,

I have figured this out at the bottom. Littleton M. Waldrum married his 5th time to Minerva E. Couch (a widow) who had a 2 year old daughter named Benone Couch in the 1880 census.

Littleton M. Waldrum had Surena and Albert Meeks ages 13 and 9 who needed a mama so he marries sometime after 1878. date of Benone Couch.

I believe they moved soon after they married or he moved with his two children and met her in Montague Co. Tx. Do you know where they are buried?

Thanks,
Wilma Looney

A query that your wrote in Genealogy.com :
The family of L. M. Waldrum is found in 1880 Montague Co TX, but the names of others in the household may not match up.
The two-year-old child has a different surname.
Take a look at the census online.

Jennifer Shipley,

As I was going through the Waldrum queries on Genealogy.com I saw that you said your ggggrandmother's Joannie Marlow was half-sister to Albert Meeks Waldrum.

I have the address of Albert's son Arthur James' son Paul Eldridge Waldrum b. 1944 Fannin Co. TX. He had been married to Ella ? during the time I use to email them; but they have divorced, and Paul remarried in July. Ella still has the same email. She gave me Paul's snail mail address: Box 154, Savoy, Tx 75479 , but I do not think he knows any stories about the family any farther back than Albert Meeks Waldrum and Rose Ann Stanley. I do remember he said that she was mean to her kids. I bet that is why one went to California and the other headed toward Oklahoma.

That is the only story I remember that he wrote to me. I have never met any of these nice folks, but they helped me get some of the Waldrum family sorted out that was their immediate family.

I went back and reread your query 2002 about Sarah J. Marlow's death. I believe you will find it in Grayson Co., Texas. since her son Albert Meeks Waldrum was born there in 1871. You may be able to go to TxGenWeb Grayson County, Texas. Maybe you can find out something there.

The county seat of Grayson Co. is Sherman, Texas. I notice that their son John Franklin Waldrum was b. in Bells, Tx which is not far from Sherman and is in Grayson, County. You may know all this already, but I wanted to help in case you live in another part of the state.

John Franklin Waldrum went to California. The other son ,A.J. Waldrum, was buried not far from Bells in Savoy, Tx just one county east in Fannin Co. not far from Bonham, Tx the county seat of Fannin Co.

Do you have any stories about Albert Meeks' wife, Rose Ann Stanley b. 1873 Tenn.? I do not have her death.

Jennifer,

I still have not found the long descendency list that I have somewhere, but from my short one I have that Albert Meeks Waldrum's parents were Littleton M. Waldrum and Mrs. Sarah J. Marlow (suppose a widow lady) She was L.M. Waldrum's 4th wife. They had Surena Waldrum 1867 Grayson Co., Tx.

Then Littleton M. Waldrum b. 1824 Tenn. marries another widow lady named Mrs. Minerva E. Couch (# 5 wife and last wife).

I may not have them exactly correct, but I have them the best I could :

1 wife Rebecca J. ??? (no children listed on mine)

2 wife Amanda ? b.1823 in Tenn. d. abt. 1854

children:

Nancy 1846 AR m. Lee Grishom b 1844

Jinsy E. 1850 AR m Wm R. Morgan b. 1848

Wm T.J.H. Waldrum b. 1854 Fannin Co. d. Grayson Co. TX

married Martha Jane Runsower b. 1854 TX

3 wife Olivia Ellen Butler b.1835 Ill. d.1864 Fannin Co.Tx

Children:

James David J. Waldrum m. Eliza Thankful Miller

Mary Waldrum m. Thomas D. Earl

Isabella Waldrum b. Fannin Co.

DOES THIS HELP ON WHO THE COUCH NAME?

I saw your query and thought I would try to help on what I have. Littleton married five times.

God bless you,

Wilma Looney

Jennifer Shipley,

I enjoyed your website. I saw a query where Arthur James Waldrum who married to Viola Miller was listed. I was trying to figure how he was related to Lucas family. I have emailed some relatives of Arthur James Waldrum in years passed.

Let me hear from you. I am not a Waldrum. I am not related to Waldrums. I just researched that family so I could purchase a cemetery lot from A. J.'s children. The lot had once belonged to A.J. Waldrum back in 1920.

I saw an L. M. Waldrum listed in your lineage.

Thanks,

Wilma Looney

CHRONOLOGICAL ORDER OF EVENTS LEADING TO THE
BATTLE OF CORINTH
October 3rd and 4th, 1862
By Hugh Horton

Northeast Mississippi Museum Association

April 7, Shiloh

The Confederate Army, under command of Beauregard, is defeated on the second day at Shiloh and falls back on Corinth.

April 11, Pittsburg Landing

General Halleck arrives from St. Louis. Orders General John Pope's army at Island No. 10 on the Mississippi to join Buell and Grant at Pittsburg Landing.

April 15, Corinth

General Earl Van Dorn's army arrives from Arkansas, increasing Confederate forces to 56,000--five miles of earthworks being constructed in semi-circle north of the town.

April 21

General Pope's Army of the Mississippi arrives at Pittsburg Landing and forms the Federal left wing at Hamburg; Buell's Army of the Ohio the center; and the Army of the Tennessee, now under General G. H. Thomas, the right wing. Halleck now has 120,000 troops to fight the entrenched Confederates at Corinth. It was thought by many, including Halleck, this would be the last battle of the war.

April 30, Pittsburg Landing

Halleck begins his "siege of Corinth." Takes thirty days to travel twenty miles.

May 29

Beauregard evacuates Corinth, retreats to Tupelo. Federals occupy Corinth next day.

June 10, Corinth

Halleck breaks up his huge army. Buell sent East to Chattanooga; Pope transferred to Virginia; Sherman occupies Memphis. Next day Halleck leaves for Washington, leaving U. S. Grant in charge.

June 27, Tupelo

Jeff Davis replaces Beauregard with Bragg. Bragg begins transferring troops to Chattanooga by rail. Van Dorn sent to Vicksburg, his two divisions left at Tupelo under Sterling Price.

September 1

Bragg, now at Chattanooga, orders Price to cross the Tennessee River to prevent Federals at Corinth from cooperating with Buell at Nashville.

September 13

Price enters Iuka, twenty miles east of Corinth and eight miles south of the river. Upon arrival, the Eighth Wisconsin, commanded by Col. Murphy, evacuated the town.

September 19, Battle of Iuka

Price, attacked by two divisions under W.S. Rosecrans from the south and threatened by Ord's Division from the north, retreats to Baldwin, 30 miles south of Corinth.

September 28, Ripley

Van Dorn, having moved up from Vicksburg with Mansfield Lovell's Division, was joined with Price's Divisions at Ripley, thirty miles southeast of Corinth. Styled the Army of West Tennessee, the three divisions totaled 23,000 men of all arms, commanded by Van Dorn.

September 29

The effort to retake Corinth begins. Van Dorn moves north on the Pocahontas Road.

October 1

Van Dorn reaches the State Line Road, rebuilds Davis Bridge over the Hatchie River.

October 2

Confederates take up line of march toward Corinth, skirmish at Young's Bridge over the Tuscumbia River, bivouacs at Chewalla, eight miles northeast of Corinth.

October 3

Confederates move out at daybreak--Lovell's Division in front, skirmishes with Federal pickets. At 10:00 a.m. Lovell's Division is deployed south of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad and Price's Division on the north.

The coordinated attack drives the Federals from the old Confederate works and by late afternoon the Union soldiers are behind the inner defenses of the town.

October 4

Van Dorn's plan to resume the battle at daybreak is delayed by the illness of one of Price's Division Commanders. Confederates break through the Federal lines about 10:00 a.m. and enter Corinth from the north, fighting in the streets all the way to the Tishomingo Hotel. At the same time the 42nd Alabama, 35th Mississippi, and 2nd Texas Infantry along with the 6th and 9th Texas dismounted cavalry broke away from the main body to attack Battery Robinett.

Battery Robinett was a three-gun redan, commanded by Lt. Henry C. Robinett, supported by the 37th, 39th, 43rd, and 63rd Ohio and the 11th Missouri regiments. The three separate charges on the position fail as well as the assault on the town. By 2:30 p.m. Van Dorn is forced to abandon the field.

Notes for Joannie Marlow:

JoAnnie's Aunt (by marriage), Epsy Pruitt Hasler, was the half 4th cousin of her husband, Joseph Clayton Lucas.

Some rumors that John was not Martha JoAnnie's father, but rather Joseph Marlow (a brother to John)....the story goes that Joseph died shortly after Martha's birth during the Civil War. Virginia Lucas states that the natural parents of Martha are Joseph Marlow b. 1828, d. October 3, 1862 in Corinth, Mississippi and Sarah Sally Hasler b. 1832 in Kentucky. It is possible that John took Joseph's children in after Joseph's death and raised them as his own.
