

Pertinent facts in life of Jasper Ole Hassler (including reminiscences) for his sons and just for record, if ever needed.

Also remember disobeying my father's orders not to swing on the front gate.

We had occasional "protracted meetings" at the church. (Now called revival meetings by doctor.

Kirkwood, a great grand daughter living in Norman and two other great grandchildren (besides Tom) living in Ariz. My youngest grandson has just finished his freshman year